DETAILS:

This investigation was predicated upon the following:

At approximately 8:00 p.m., July 9, 1968, [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Third District, Louisville Police Department, Louisville, Kentucky, furnished the following information:

An anonymous telephone call had, just a few minutes previous, been received at the Standiford Field (Louisville Airport) Weather Bureau by a [REDACTED]. The caller said something to the effect: "You better not be around when Rockefeller comes in, and the bomb goes off," and immediately hung up. b7c

[REDACTED] advised that this call referred to the scheduled arrival of Presidential Candidate Governor NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER, at Standiford Field by chartered flight at 9:45 p.m., July 9, 1968. He further advised that Secret Service representatives already at Standiford Field had been advised of this call as well as the airport Security Office and that those men, together with officers of the Louisville Police Department, would be conducting a search of the buildings and grounds of Standiford Field for the alleged bomb.

At approximately 8:05 p.m., substantially the same information was furnished by [REDACTED] Jefferson County Air Board Security Police, Standiford Field. He also advised that the Federal Aviation Agency at Standiford Field had been advised. b7c

At 8:10 p.m., Assistant Special Agent in Charge [REDACTED] furnished the above information to [REDACTED] Region V, 109th Military Intelligence Group, Louisville, Kentucky.

Immediately thereafter, SA [REDACTED] personally contacted [REDACTED], Special Agent in Charge of the United States Secret Service, and Chief of Police [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] of the Louisville Police Department at Standiford Field. They advised that they were aware of the b7c anonymous telephone call and that a search of the airport facilities had been made by the security police of the Jefferson County Air Board; members of the Louisville Police Department Bomb Squad; and Secret Service Agents, but with negative results. Further, that a search was also being made at the Brown Hotel where Governor ROCKEFELLER was to spend the night. [REDACTED] also advised that a similar anonymous telephone call had been received at approximately the same time as the aforementioned one, at the Office of the Chief of Police of the Louisville Police Department. This call was received by a civilian employee, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] one of his Agents, had interviewed the recipients of the call received at Standiford Field and would have complete details, but that no suspects had been developed.

Governor ROCKEFELLER arrived at Standiford Field at approximately 9:45 p.m., made a speech, and departed for the Brown Hotel in downtown Louisville at approximately 10:45 p.m. No bombing incident occurred.

On July 10, 1968, Agent [REDACTED] U.S. Secret Service, Louisville, Kentucky, furnished the following information: b7c

The anonymous telephone call received at the Weather Bureau on July 9, 1968 was received at 7:33 p.m. on the public line, telephone 363-9655. Two employees of the Weather Bureau, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], heard the voice of the anonymous caller because each of them picked up a separate phone at the same time and heard the voice state, "If I were you men, I'd leave the building at Standiford before the bomb goes off when ROCKEFELLER arrives." He said that these men reported that immediately after this statement was made the caller hung up. They got the impression that it was the voice of a Caucasian making the call, but they had no idea who the caller was. b7c
Immediately after learning of the call, a complete sweep of the building and grounds at the Standiford Field airport was made by the Airport Police, members of the Louisville Police Department Bomb Squad, and Secret Service Agents.

[REDACTED] also advised that [REDACTED], a civilian in the office of the Chief of Police at the Louisville Police Department, had also received a telephone call on the evening of July 10, 1968, in which some mention was made of the bomb and Mr. ROCKEFELLER and Standiford Field. He said he had not actually interviewed [REDACTED] but he understood from [REDACTED] who had given the information to [REDACTED] superior, [REDACTED] that he thought the caller was a Negro from the sound of his voice. b7c

[REDACTED] said that he has no idea who made the anonymous calls and has no suspects.

[REDACTED] also advised that a complete sweep had also been made of the Brown Hotel in downtown Louisville where Mr. ROCKEFELLER was to spend the night of July 9, 1968. In both the search of the airport and airport grounds and the Brown Hotel, no bomb was found nor anything that resembled one. b7c

On the evening of July 9, 1968, he was on duty at his place of employment and when the telephone rang at 7:33 p.m. he answered it. At the same time another meteorologist, [REDACTED] also picked up another extension phone intending to answer, but when he heard [REDACTED] answer he said nothing. On July 10, 1968, the facts in this matter were discussed with Assistant U.S. Attorney JOHN L. SMITH and he stated he felt the facts concerning the anonymous telephone call received at Standiford Field Airport on the night of July 9, 1968, constituted a violation of Section 35 (b), Title 18, United States Code, because it appeared to have been willful and malicious. He said, however, that he did not want to make any definite statement as to whether or not he would prosecute the offense because he would have to wait until the person was identified and facts developed which would substantiate that particular individual had made the call, and that there was other evidence, other than his own statement, to corroborate the fact that he had made the call.
